

Trustee Tidbits

Jen Anderson

The Bridgewater Public Library Board of Trustees is excited to once again be participating in Bridgewater's Christmas on the Common on Sunday December 4, 2022. Last year, with the support of the Library Director and staff, the Trustees were able to collect, wrap, and give away over 350 gently used books for all ages. The Trustees and library staff are in the process of collecting and wrapping books for this year's table. Please stop by and see us at Christmas on the Common to pick your free book to snuggle up with during the holiday season. You can also stop by the library during normal business hours to borrow books for free. We look forward to seeing you!
